

& SONS
9th, 1891.

AP. round his neck-
ture in a collection by Miss Libby, tographer of Norway. These ph-graphs make a fine showing.
A large fully dressed paper faced in a swing next claims our attention.

stands 16½ hands high, bred by G. R. Brown. Sown owned by L. A. Hall of Bethel. Sired by Ditzoo, record 2:29, by Old Drew, dam by independence, by Old Drew. Second dam, sire unknown, dam of W. L. Stanton & Son of Oxford, a pair of two-year-old matched sleers and a pair children have been given prizes. Victor M. Whitman handled the Police Fair Program, and Fred Crockett was there in the interests of the Atkinson Fur and Upholstery Co. of Norway, while Ill Richards of South Paris passed out

The committee on knit goods and yarns also on needle work and millinery had failed to return their report to the secretary up to 10 o'clock Friday and consequently we have to omit it.

(Continued on fourth page.)

